November 2-4, 2011 Nagoya University, Nagoya, Japan

➤ Second Call for Papers

The International Workshop on Advanced Sonochemistry and the 20th Annual Meeting on the Japan Society of Sonochemistry (JSS) will be held at Noyori Conference Hall in Nagoya University, Nagoya, Japan, from November 2-4, 2011. The JSS established in 2003 is holding the annual meeting related to the basic science and the applications of ultrasound in chemistry and related fields (e.g. cavitation, sonoluminescence, organic chemistry, inorganic chemistry, environmental applications, medical applications, etc.). The workshop will be composed of invited lectures, oral and poster presentations. The organizing committee welcomes many people who are interested in sonochemistry and its application, from all over the world.
